MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

-By Chengchu “Cathy” Liu

Dear CAFS Members and Friends,

Happy Spring to you and your family!

As we welcome the season of renewal and growth, we are excited to bring you the spring edition of our CAFS Newsletter, filled with exciting updates and news about upcoming events.

First and foremost, I extend a warm welcome to our new members Drs. Cangliang Shen, Quancai Sun, and Zhipeng Tao who have recently joined our CAFS family as lifetime members. We look forward to the contributions you will bring to our community (See CAFS Member Spotlights).

Second, I am thrilled to share with you that five CAFS members have been selected as new Fellows for IFT and IAFoST (International Academy of Food Science and Technology). Please join me to sincerely congratulate Drs. Zhongli Pan, Jason Wan, and Jianping Wu for being selected as 2024 IAFoST Fellows and Drs. Vivian Wu and Chengchu Liu as 2024 IFT Fellows. Your remarkable achievements reflect the excellence of our CAFS, and we take immense pride in celebrating your success (See CAFS Member Spotlights).

As we move forward, we would like to invite nominations for the position of President-Elect. This role is crucial to the continued success of our CAFS, and we are seeking dedicated individuals who are passionate about our mission and eager to contribute their leadership skills. If you know someone who fits this or if you are interested in nominating yourself, please submit your nominations to the Nomination Committee by May 15, 2024 (See Call for Nominations for CAFS President-Elect for more details).

Additionally, we encourage you to nominate deserving individuals for the 2024 CAFS Distinguished Service Award and CAFS Professional Achievement Award. These awards recognize a professional member for his/her outstanding and sustained contribution to CAFS (Distinguished Service Award) and to the field of food science and engineering as it relates to teaching, research, extension, administration, or leadership in the food industry, academia, and government (Professional Achievement Award). If you know someone whose deserves recognition, please submit your nominations to the Award Committee by May 15, 2024 (See Call for Nominations of CAFS 2024 Professional Awards for more details).

We are pleased to announce that our CAFS Annual Business Meeting will be virtual using a Zoom platform this year (Meeting ID: 954 9428 5307), and it is scheduled for 8-10 PM (Eastern Time) on July 10. The Annual Business Meeting provides a great opportunity for us to come together, review our progress, and discuss plans for the future. Please mark your calendars to attend and participate in shaping the direction of our CAFS.

Furthermore, please save the date, July 15 at 5:30 pm-9:00 pm (Central Time), for our upcoming highly anticipated Annual Banquet. As a tradition, the 2024 CAFS Annual Banquet will be held at MingHin Cuisine in Chicago Chinatown in conjunction with the IFT annual meeting. This event promises an evening of delicious cuisine and invaluable networking opportunities. It is a time to honor our members' achievements, acknowledge our collective efforts, and strengthen the bonds that unite us as members of CAFS. More detailed information (i.e. menu, address and admission) can be found in the 2024 CAFS Annual Banquet flyer. Please prioritize your calendar for this memorable occasion for CAFS family and help distribute the information within your networking.

Last but not least, we invite all our student members to participate in this year's Student Research Competition. This competition not only provides a platform for showcasing your innovative ideas and research endeavors. Please submit your abstract by May 5, 2024. Moreover, professional members are invited to join us as judges for the competition. Your expertise will not only enrich the evaluation process but also serve as an inspiration to our young researchers (See 2024 CAFS Student Research Competition for more information).

As we embrace the spirit of spring and all the possibilities it holds, let us seize the opportunities before us with optimism and determination. Together, we can continue to grow, learn, and make a positive impact in our CAFS and beyond.

I look forward to seeing you all at the 2024 CAFS Annual Business Meeting over the Zoom and 2024 CAFS Annual Banquet in Chicago. In the meantime, if you have any questions or concerns or dietary restrictions, please contact me at: cathyliu@umd.edu.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR CAFS PRESIDENT-ELECT

-by Lihan Huang

Dear CAFS members:

The 2024-2025 CAFS Nomination Committee is calling for the nominations (including self-nomination) for CAFS 2025-2026 President-Elect. The duties of the President-Elect, nomination process, and qualifications of the candidates for the President-Elect are stated in the following sections (7.4 and 9) of the CAFS Bylaws:

7.4. PRESIDENT-ELECT: The President-elect shall assist the President, formulate plans for his/her presidency including appointing Committee chairperson for each Committee for the next term, and succeed to the office of the President at the end of the Annual Meeting. The President-elect usually serves as the chairperson of the Annual Meeting Committee and performs the duties of the President in the President's absence.

9. NOMINATION:

Nomination Committee shall solicit potential candidates from the membership in the Newsletter or through a special announcement before a final list is compiled. Any member may suggest names of candidates for the President-elect, Directors, Secretary, Treasurer, or other elected officers to the Nomination Committee by submitting a biographic sketch of each candidate along with a signed statement of the candidate that he/she is willing to hold office if elected.

Qualification of candidates for the President-elect shall include but not limited to: (1) at least three-year current Membership or Lifetime Membership in good standing, (2) served as an elected office of the society, and (3) good leadership qualification and administrative experience. Other candidates shall have at least one-year current Membership or Lifetime Membership in good standing show willingness to serve CAFS at the time of nomination. After reviewing each candidate's qualifications, the Nomination Committee shall prepare a slate of one to three candidates for each position with the ballot form, voting instructions, biographical sketches and nomination statements for the annual election at least two (2) months before the Annual Meeting.

Please send your nomination and the candidate's brief biographic sketch to the Nomination Committee members, Dr. Lihan Huang (Lihan.Huang@usda.gov), Dr. Chengchu (Catherine) Liu (cathylu@umd.edu), and Dr. Qinchun Rao (qrao@fsu.edu) by May 15, 2024.

Regards,
Lihan Huang (Chair)
Chengchu Liu

2024 CAFS STUDENT RESEARCH COMPETITION

-By Zhenjiao Du

Dear CAFS students and professors:

We are calling for students in CAFS to submit original abstracts for the 2024 CAFS Student Research Competition. The deadline for paper submission is May 5, 2024. Please send your abstract in PDF format as an email attachment to Zhenjiao Du (zhenjiao@ksu.edu). For detailed instructions, please refer to the attached guidelines.

We are thrilled to announce significant enhancements to this year's competition, including updated awarding criteria and simplified participation procedures. This year, we are proud to offer at most 11 prizes for students, a notable increase from the four prizes awarded in previous years. This expansion aims to recognize and celebrate the dedication of students in the field of food science while fostering their career development. Additionally, in recognition of their participation, all students participating in this activity will receive a certificate of participation. The submission format of the abstract will be the same as the Technical Research Paper Abstract in IFT.

Should you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to Juan Gao (jg22cb@fsu.edu) or Zhenjiao Du (zhenjiao@ksu.edu).

2024 CAFS Student Research Competition Submission Guidelines

Purpose:

1. To foster and promote scientific research and scholarship among student members of CAFS in food science or related fields.
2. To acknowledge the excellence of research and presentations by undergraduates/graduate students.

Criteria and Procedures:

1. The competition is open to all full-time students enrolled in North America within the field of Food Science or related programs. Contestants can be undergraduates, graduate students, or in a transitional phase within their program. Post-doctoral fellows are ineligible. Contestants will be further categorized and evaluated based on their degree levels.
2. Contestants must be CAFS student members or apply for CAFS student membership at the time of the competition. For information on becoming a CAFS student member, please visit <https://www.cafsnet.org/joincafs.htm> or reach out to Juan Gao (jg22cb@fsu.edu) or Zhenjiao Du (zhenjiao@ksu.edu).
3. Abstracts submitted for the competition must be from original research conducted primarily by the students and have not been presented or published elsewhere. Previously published studies will not be accepted for the competition.
4. Each contestant is permitted to submit only one paper.
5. The deadline for poster submission is May 5th, 2024 at 11:59 pm Eastern Daylight Time (EDT).
6. The student must be the primary author (typically the first author) of the paper.
7. At most 11 finalists will be selected by May 20th, 2024. In the second round, a Zoom meeting for oral presentations will be scheduled between June and July 2024. All finalists must briefly present their research and respond to questions from judges. An email notification will be sent once the date and details are confirmed. Evaluation criteria will include the quality of the presentation, originality, research quality, writing, and the ability to address judges' inquiries.

Prizes:

The 2024 CAFS student research competition winners will be announced at the CAFS annual meeting/banquet. Each winner will receive a certificate and a monetary award.

- 1st prize: $600 (1)
- 2nd prize: $400 (1)
- 3rd prize: $200 (1)
- Honorable Mention: $100 (3 - 8)
* Depends on the total number of participants

Instructions for preparing competition abstracts:

- a. Each paper must be in PDF format. The file name should follow this format: "Contestant's first name + Contestant's last name-Abstract title.pdf". Please include your identity (Undergrad/Grad), your and your advisor's email addresses, as well as your affiliation in the body of the email. The email can be sent to zhenjiao@ksu.edu.
 - b. On the title page (first page), provide the title of the paper, the names of all authors and their affiliations, and the contact information (email) of the graduate student.
 - c. Each paper must contain the following five components. Tables and graphs are optional but no more than 4 in total if presented. Abstracts must be 350 words or less, including the introduction, methods, results, and significance (A two-sentence summary is excluded). (A template can be downloaded from the Google Drive).
- Two-sentence Summary
 - Introduction
 - Methods
 - Results/Discussion
 - Significance

CALL FOR JUDGES OF 2024 CAFS STUDENT RESEARCH COMPETITION

Dear CAFS members,

The 2024 CAFS Student Research Competition was released through WeChat Group and LinkedIn. We are now calling for judges from academia, industry, and government for 2024 CAFS Student Research Competition. Your expertise will undoubtedly help our participants improve both their technical writing and oral presentation skills and provide unique insights into their future research!

The submission deadline is May 5th, 2024. We will have two rounds of competition. The first round is to evaluate the abstract by May 20th, 2024, and the second round is to assess the overall performance of finalist's oral presentation in June or July. The winners will be ranked by the second round and will be announced at our annual meeting in July.

Please do not hesitate to become one of our judges at this link Call for Judge Panel.

Thank you for your support and contribution to CAFS Research competition.

Sincerely,

Zhenjiao Du

President of CAFS Student Committee

$3.6 million. Dr. Shen serves as the editorial board member of Food Control, Journal of Food Protection, and Food Protection Trends. Dr. Shen received the Outstanding Volunteer Award of Food Microbiology Division-Institute of Food Technologists (IFT) in 2018. He was the Chair of Food Microbiology Division-IFT in 2019-2020 and the Chair of Biotechnology Division-IFT in 2022-2023.

Quancai Sun (Florida State University)

Dr. Quancai Sun, currently working as an assistant professor in the Department of Health, Nutrition, and Food Sciences at the Florida State University, specializing in the field of functional foods and nutrition. Prior to my current role, I completed my Ph.D. training with Dr. Yeonhwa Park in Umass Amherst and postdoctoral training with Dr. Guodong Zhang at the National University of Singapore. My expertise focuses on the mechanistic study of phytochemicals in the prevention of chronic diseases as well as food contaminants in the development of obesity, T2D, and colon inflammation. For this purpose, I use interdisciplinary approaches from food biochemistry, molecular biology, and omics to study:

1. Phytochemicals and their beneficial influence on human health.
 2. Dietary proteins/peptides and their beneficial influence on gut microbiota and colon health.
 3. Food contaminants and their potential influence on gut microbiota, colon health, as well as obesity.

Zhipeng (Toby) Tao (Texas Woman's University)

Dr. Zhipeng (Toby) Tao joined the Department of Nutrition and Food Sciences as an Assistant Professor in January 2024 at Texas Woman's University (TWU). Before joining TWU, Toby worked as a postdoctoral research fellow for four years at Massachusetts General Hospital/Harvard Medical School. He received his Ph.D. degree in Molecular and Cellular Sciences from Virginia Tech in 2019.

Toby's overall research vision is to elucidate the role of lipid metabolism and mitochondrial function in cancer and metabolic diseases (diabetes and obesity) and design nutritional interventions and evidence-based target therapies.

We appreciate your interest in joining our society. To become a member, you can download the CAFS membership application/renewal/update form. For more information, please reach out to Xiaolei (Shelley) Shi via email xshi257@wisc.edu
